

Fan, Chan & Dr. Neumann Business Advisory (Shanghai) Co. Ltd. (“FCN”)

is a German-Hong Kong investment and provides audit, tax and accounting services to international clients in the Chinese market. As our business is perpetually expanding, we are seeking for a highly motivated

Senior Audit Manager

Responsibilities:

- Planning and performing financial audits and transaction services (Due Diligence)
- Identifying business process risks
- Developing testing methodologies to evaluate the adequacy of controls
- Documenting the results of the evaluations
- Developing recommendations and reports based on audits and presenting these ideas to partners
- Formulating professional development and educational plans for junior staff members
- Quality control

Essential skills required:

- In-depth knowledge of China and IFRS GAAP guidelines (knowledge of German GAAP is a plus), underlined by minimum eight working years' experience in an international CPA firm in PR China
- Strong background and experience with audit methodologies and techniques
- Prior success conducting external audits
- Ability to build relationships
- Excellent written and oral communication ability
- Strong time management and organizational skills

Perspectives:

- Long-term perspective in a foreign CPA firm
- Adequate and transparent salary package
- Excellent working environment in prime area in Shanghai Puxi.
- Professional team atmosphere

You are invited to visit our website at: www.fcn-neumann.com

Contact Email: lana@fcn-neumann.com