

Ebner Stolz Neumann Wu Business Advisory (Shanghai) Co., Ltd. belongs to Ebner Stolz group (Germany) which is a leading CPA firm in Germany. In China, we supply professional services in Audit, Accounting, Transaction Services and Tax Advisory from Shanghai. Since we enjoy a continuous growth of business, we are seeking for a qualified candidate for the position:

Associate Transaction Services

Job Responsibilities:

As a staff of transaction services, you work together with the manager on Due Diligence Services and other compliance and special audit projects. Your main responsibilities include:

- Assist in the evaluation and collection of due diligence materials and underwriting transactions.
- Assist Manager on-site with research and collect/analyze data.
- Support with report drafting.

Requirements:

- Degree in Accounting/Finance/Economic Law related background and minimum two years working experience.
- International background, proven through study abroad and/or working experience in an international, reputable CPA/tax firm in China.
- Business fluent in English, orally and written.
- Analytical capability with logical thinking and good communication skills.
- Self-motivated, have the willingness to solve challenges and work under pressure.
- Strong sense of confidentiality and attention to details.
- Team player committed to maintaining the high level of integrity and to quality client service.
- Sound PC skills including proficiency in Excel, PowerPoint and Word.